

Intake/Addiction Counselor

Samaritan Inns, located in Columbia Heights, NW in Washington, DC, is one of the region's premier providers of residential Substance Use Disorder (SUD) treatment and recovery services to men, women, and families. Since our founding in 1985, we have served over 16,000 DC residents through a multi-phase treatment and recovery continuum. We continue to expand our services and grow to meet the significant need in our community.

Position Summary: Addiction counselors are an integral part of our clinical team. They are responsible for:

- Intake assessments and bi-weekly progress reports for Medicaid and MCO clients.
- Group and individual counseling

The ideal candidate works efficiently, completes documentation in a timely manner, is a team player, and can quickly establish a therapeutic alliance with clients. A DC Licensed Graduate Social Worker (LGSW) or Licensed Graduate Professional Counselor (LGPC) is a requirement. Having experience in DATA WITS is preferable.

Pay: $65,000 - $70,000 annually

COVID-19 considerations:

All staff must be fully vaccinated.

Full-time employees receive a very generous benefits package, which includes: premium-free health insurance, with dental and vision coverage, and a benefits card to cover co-payments; paid sick leave; vacation; and personal days off.